HAGEN DISPLACES OUIMET IN GOLF

Steady Playing Won the National Title for the 22 Year Old Professional Over Chicago Cousre—305 Miles Covered by DePalma in 4 Hours, 5 Minutes-No Help Proffered New Britain Baseball Club.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Waiter C. Hagen, 22 years old, native professional of Rochester, N. Y., today displaced Francis Ouimet as open golf champlon of America by winning the tournament at Midlothian with a medal score of 296 for the 72 holes. Ouimet fell off in his play, taking 298 for his total and it fell to the lot of Charles Evans Jr., western amateur champlon, hampered by a wrenched ankle to furnish Hager's chief opposition. Outplaying the whole field in a spectacular finish that electrified the long sallery. Evans made two rounds of 71 and 70 and finished with 291 just one stroke behind Hagen. Evans puttis, His ankle seemed to bother his putting more than his long work and irons. His tee shots went some 300 yards from the fair way nearly every time. His irons were nearly all perfect but in the last nime holes his missed three short putts and had no luck with long ones. He finally drove the edge of the 18th green 277 yards and had left one putt for a pair with Hagen. The spectators stood on tiptoe while the Chicagoan tried the 30 foot putt. He missed by 12 inches and the champlonship went to Hagen. The spectators stood on tiptoe while the Chicagoan tried the 30 foot putt, He missed by 12 inches and the champlonship went to Hagen. At last Manager Hughes says that the final preparations have been made for the All Stars' tour of New England, and the team pulls out from the New York, New Haven and Hartford depot Sunday night, and in all probability will not return until Labor day. Owing to the postponing of the trip a couple teams were obliged to cancel their games with the Stars, and Manager Hughes has rearranged the schedule. The team plays Monday and Tuesday at York Beach, Wednesday at Fort McKinley and Thursday at Old Orchard Beach. These are all summer resorts along the shore, and the boys anticipate a great time. From there they go inland to the mountain resorts and Friday line up against Livermore Falls, champions of Maine. Saturday they play at Rumford and Monday at Sanford. The team then has the opportunity of going down to St. Johnsbury, Vt., and from there to New Hampshire, but Manager Hughes may decide to remain in Maine.

Last week the trip was postponed on account of the absence of pitchers, and it appears to have been a lucky thing, as the past week few games were played in Maine on account of rain. Now the manager has signed a full array of twirlers with good reputations. I. pitcher, who twirled good ball for the Brown freshmen during the past season, and is regarded as a good prospect for next season's varsity nine, will also accompany the team. The fourth twirler is young Benjamin, who has yet to achieve a rep, but Manager Hughes believes he has all the earmarks of a great pitcher. The pitchers are all good outfielders, and in addition Manager Hughes has Doc Thompson and himself, both players of no small ability.

The team will play a game Sunday on the Cranberry with the Taftvile Bear Cats and this time the manager says there has been no misunderstanding about it, but there will surely be a game. SPORTING NOTES

The Boston Braves have figured in more games decided by one run than any other team in the National League. The Stallings clan has done just a little better than break even in these contests, winning fourteen and losing twelve.

After the Beigians evacuated Brusels, leaving it for the Germans to occupy without a battle, it was believed the next big fight would be near Antwerp. If the Germans undertake to capture that city they will find thmesives opposed by very strong fortifications. Antwerp is the temporary capital of Beigium.

SISTINE CHAPEL WHERE POPE'S FUNERAL IS HELD AND CONCLAVE VOTES FOR SUCCESSOR.

The Sistine chapel, where the funeral of the pope is held, is transformed on the tenth day after his death for the The Sistine chapel, where the funeral of the pope is held, is transformed on the tenth day after his death for the election of a new pope. Upon the altar a vast arras, representing the descent of the Holy Ghost, is placed. A throne in front of the altar is reserved for the new pontiff. In the center of the chapel is a large table bearing two vases and one large covered chalice for the reception of ballots. Before each cardinal's throne is a small table, with ink, paper and sealing wax. To the left of the entrance is a stove with a pipe leading out of a window. In the stove the unsuccessful ballots are burned with damp straw. The escaping black smoke signifies to the public and the watchers outside the chapel that no choice has been made. When the decisive ballot is taken that papers are burned with dry straw and the light smoke indicates that a pope has been elected. Arrangements for the conclave are made by Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state and Cardinal Della Volpe, the chamberlain, who is head of the church until a new pope is chosen.
